I am an adaptable, logical and capable graduate from the University of Birmingham with a 2:1 BA (Hons) in English Literature (2014), seeking an entry-level position in Journalism & Publishing that will utilise my creative skills, initiative, ideas and genuine enthusiasm for varied but clear and accurate reporting and writing particularly utilising my passion for online and social media.

Relevant Journalism & Publishing Experience – Online, Social Media & Publications

September 2014 – to February 2015 – RunWild Media Group. Editorial Intern.

I was a researcher and contributor working on various publications by RWMG to tight publishing deadlines requiring strong writing and editorial skills, solid research abilities and creative ideas for targeted audiences and subscription readers living in the London residential areas that the publications circulated to. I contributed and wrote regular cover articles and content but specifically, listed below are some of the special articles, interviews and contributions I have had published.

- Southwest Residents Journal, Battersea, Balham, Clapham & Wandsworth, Richmond, Wimbledon, Putney & Barnes – Regular notebook and calendar pages every month and specific articles are The Colours of Autumn - "Photographs from the local area share how they've been capturing the beauty of the season". Fabulous Festivities – "Tamir Davies rounds up local key events, from firework displays to switching on the Christmas lights". The Playground - "Tamir Davies rounds up the local news, classes and fashion for little ones this autumn", "Interview with Rhiannon Davies about the company the Biscuit Tree". Fashion news page, "Spring & Summer fashion 2015".
- Fulham Residents Journal – Food & Drink, Tuscan Nights review, "Tamir Davies enjoys the traditional Italian cuisine at Osteria 164".
- Belgravia Residents Journal – Regular "Notebook" pages.
- Canary Wharf – Creative designer for one page multi-format advertisements.
- Chiswick & Brook Green – "December Late night shopping page", "December Food and Drink reviews", "Film listings and recent review of Kumiko, The Treasure Hunter".

July 2014 – September 2014 – Ethical Hedonist

Editorial Intern for online and social media. (I continue to offer Alison Reid (founder) my experience, support and knowledge of Social Media when requested)

As an intern for Alison Reid with her new online publication, Ethical Hedonist, an ethical, eco and luxury fashion magazine, I was her researcher and editorial contributor for the publication during the start-up phase, but specifically for all aspects of online presence and Social Media. My published online contributions include:

- Ethical Hedonist – The River Thames comes alive in September.

June 2013 – August 2013 – TAGMAG
Editorial Intern for online and social media.

I was required to write and publish articles for the online magazine. I also worked on the graphic designs using Photoshop and Publisher as well as liaising with clients and writing proposals to interested companies and advertisers. Finally, I contributed in establishing the rebranding of TAGMAG's online presence. My published contributions include:

- "Cracking the Nut on Journalism", "Secret Sauce to Content Marketing", "What is the future of Digital Publishers", "What is the perfect workspace", "The perks of creating an advertorial", "Impact of photography", "Embracing your inner fashion advertisement", "Brands hand in hand", "Branding products in advertorials" & "Bloggers take the front row".
